MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT – Michael Moore

Dear Colleagues,

Most of you will be aware of the sad passing of Sir Nicholas Shehadie, the husband of our Patron, Dame Marie Bashir. We have sent her a letter of condolence and a donation to one of her preferred Charities, the AIME Sponsoring program assisting Indigenous student education. As well as being our Patron, Marie has many friends in NSWIPP.

We had recently the first Executive Committee meeting of the year. By way of feedback:

Financially, we are on budget. Our Treasurer, Jan Williams, wishes to pass on thanks to everyone who has been able to bring forward the payment of their NSWIPP subscriptions so far – it is an extremely helpful gesture by those who are in a position to do so.

The MAB is reviewing documents related to Associate Membership, with a view to have them consistent with current practice. This is also important as the PPAA is working on introducing an Associate Member category of the PPAA. We need to acknowledge the ongoing, time-consuming work being done by the MAB, reviewing processes and procedures ie Belinda Keatinge, Maria Kourt and Donna Jacobs. Regarding Peer Groups, we have ended-up with an excellent response to the survey coordinated by Natasha Bonnin, and we thank the membership for taking the time to participate in this important initiative. A member from each relevant group has been contacted to help organize a liaison person for each group, for ease of communication. Membership will be consulted regarding further initiatives.

With regard to Training, the 2016 group have commenced their seminar program. The group consists of Farideh Absalan, John Conaghan (from Newcastle), Yael Levy, Hassan Medhi, Swapnil Sharma and Kathy Watson. Ian Thorburn, from the 2014 group, has decided to withdraw from the training. These are difficult decisions and Ian's was very much thought through with the help of his trainee supports. We wish him well for the future. Maureen Lagan, 2012 group has returned to the program after some brief leave. The ATAB is considering when to commence a new Training Group.

Another enjoyable Social evening was held at the Merton Hotel this month. Thanks to Dorothy Francis for continuing to coordinate these events. A "pod" has now been formed to oversee updating and improving our website. We greatly appreciate Jo Coulthard and Natasha Bonnin taking on this role for us.

In other CEAB news, we have scientific meetings coming-up as well as several larger projects in the pipeline including a joint day with ICAPP. More details soon. Please note, we have decided to email Certificates of Attendance from now on, rather than hard copies on the night.

The PPAA had a recent Council meeting. NSWIPP is represented by Anne-Marie Swan, Dorothy Francis and myself. Dorothy is new to the Council, replacing Julie Smee. The new Constitution has been approved and the last steps towards the PPAA joining the Confederation of psychoanalytic organisations are being taken. I can report that the PPAA is now ready to sign-on following resolution of the remaining issues. QPPA (Queensland) seems to have the organisation of the annual Conference well in hand. They are also largely responsible for the Trainee Conference with the help of Priscilla Maxwell from the VAPP. NSWIPP is hosting the Conference in 2019. We would greatly appreciate any venue suggestions noting that the dates coincide with the Vivid festival.

The main news from the Premises committee is the interest in the consulting room. Another half-day has been taken-up which is excellent news. There are still some sessions available. The good work is being done by Anne-Marie and Jan. We also thank Steen Rees for his ongoing invaluable help with our IT systems.

There are no new items to report in relation to Ethics matters. The plan this year is to review process and procedures then work on a new Privacy policy.

Once again, Lyndall Rees is owed our sincere gratitude for her invaluable efforts as our Admin. Officer. Thank you, Lyndall.

I wish everyone the very best for 2018.

Warm regards to you all,

Michael
