

NSWIPP

NSW Institute of Psychoanalytic
Psychotherapy

NSWIPP Position Statement on Climate Change

NSWIPP accepts that climate change is a serious global threat affecting the environment and human health & safety, and that it is causally linked to human behaviour. We recognise the complexity of this issue as well as the anxiety, fear and divisiveness it generates and we seek to facilitate the kind of thinking and understanding that can support responding to this threat in a way that is proactive, adaptive and productive.