MESSAGE FROM ANNE-MARIE SWAN

Dear All-

Well, as you can see from the Calendar, we are approaching the busiest time of the year. Having just seen the film Ride Like A Girl, which I thoroughly enjoyed, I'm reminded of the proximity of the Melbourne Cup and the realisation that once those horses are out of their starting blocks, the year takes off to its end at a rapid pace.

There are a number of key events coming up all of which seem unmissable. We are welcoming John Boots' wife, Beth McIntyre, on October 14 to talk, from her professional perspective as a lawyer, on the issue of the Professional Will and Closure of a Practice. This event is one of the two key Ethics and Values presentations that we hold each year and I would strongly urge you all to attend as this is a key issue under consideration by the PPAA and is likely to become a mandatory aspect of practice.

We also welcome Julian Zanelli to present for Associate Membership on the 18th November and Janiene Wilson, representing Peer Group 8, who will be presenting a case of a chronic eating disorder on the 11th November.

As well we have the Supervisors' Meeting, facilitated by Laurie on the 4th November.

Other key events are the AGM on the 28th October, the Psychoanalytic Book Sale on the 2nd and 3rd November, kindly organised by Maria Kourt, and, of course, our Dadirri Weekend from Saturday, 30th November to Sunday lunchtime, 1st December.

Dadirri will be followed by our End of Year Party at the Welcome Hotel in Rozelle.

All of these events represent an opportunity for us to come together as a community and I would encourage you all to make an effort in this busy time of the year to view it also as an opportunity for re-energising. In an increasingly unstable world of rapid technological change and automatization, we represent, through our work and our community, a reminder of the central importance of human connection.

A reminder as well of the exciting development of the formation of the Australasian Confederation of Psychoanalytic Psychotherapies which will be holding its Inaugural Conference on Saturday, 29th February 2020 in Melbourne at The Melbourne Brain Centre, Parkville, Victoria. The theme of the Conference is Unity and Diversity within the Group Mind of Psychoanalysis.

As Members of the PPAA we are foundation members of this group along with the Australian Association of Group Psychotherapists (AAGP), The Australian and New Zealand Society of Jungian Analysts (ANZSJA) and The Australian Psychoanalytic Society (APAS). Home page: acpp.org.au

I would like also at this time to welcome our new trainees who commenced their Infant Observation in August and were welcomed as a group to the Institute in September.

There are currently 7 new and established trainees: Robyn Adler, Veronica Champion, Kylie Cullen, Kylie Innocente, Sean Lubbe, Andrew McKensey and Cristina Pastore. Elizabeth Sullivan has also commenced her Infant Obs and hopes to join the current training group. Michael Ossher has also commenced Infant Observation in a stand alone capacity and hopes to join a training group further down the track.

All of the above attended the Orientation and Welcome in September and were joined afterwards by many of the ongoing trainees which made for an uplifting and enjoyable experience.

We are Indebted to Michael as Chair of the ATAB and to all its Members who were able to attend as well as to Lyndall for organisation and catering.

Apart from the Executive, I know many of you are involved in the life of the Institute in one way or another and we are all indebted to each other for the very good shape that we now find ourselves in with continued interest in both Training and Membership.

None of this could happen without a continued camaraderie and good will on the part of all in the creation of community.

So well done one and all.

A special thanks to all Executive Members for your continued hard work and support.

Warm wishes,

Anne-Marie

Julian Zanelli will present for Membership on Monday 18 November 2019

Bio – Julian Zanelli

Julian's original career was in merchant banking and he retrained as a psychotherapist 20 years ago. Since graduating, he has been working in private practice, originally as a somatic psychotherapist and for the last 10 years, exclusively as a psychoanalytic psychotherapist. His clinical interests have shifted over the years to reflect his caseload and he is predominantly interested in adults with personality disorders, trauma, dissociation and psychosis.

SYDNEY INNER WEST

GLEBE

Are you Looking to Rent a Nurturing Therapy Room?

This light-filled warm therapy room is situated on the ground floor of the well-established Genki Center in Glebe. As a contemporary somatic and psychoanalytical (intersubjective) psychotherapist I am looking to share the room with a suitable like-minded trauma based psychotherapist.

The room is decorated like a home – with comfortable Balinese seats, desk, massage table and tidy storage spaces. Art and plants add to the serenity of the space. WI-FI, cleaning included in the hire rate.

Close to City, Sydney Uni and Parramatta Road the room is a quiet haven located on the city fringe. It is easily accessible via public transport and non-metered parking at the door. Availability on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and weekend. Give me a ring to discuss times and rates. Opportunity for cross-referral.
